

Fig. 0 : Screenshot of the interface developed for visualizing the measures and aligned media tracks. The top six curves are accelerations and angular velocities for X, Y and Z axis respectively. The waveform of the audio recording is visible at the bottom. The red cursor allows to scroll forward and backward while all tracks are played synchronously. Control panel is visible at top left and video window at bottom left.